

BOB GAINES purchased Palace of Sweets, "located in that old building just below Hunter's Hardware in Camas" in 1921. According to Gaines, the place was often filled to its capacity of 60 persons. In front are, from left, Jessie Burns, Bob Gaines, George Gaines and Margaret Smith.

APPARENTLY Camas-Washougal's winters in the early days of this century were a little heartier than those these days. The drifts made for lofty walking in downtown Camas.
